DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2, and 4-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hayashi in view of Lovingood (US 2003/0190853) substantially as set forth in section 5 of the June 15, 2006 Office action. It would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art to have provided some of the natural fibers of Lovingood to the weft of Hayashi as a means to save money on the expensive composite yarns provided by Hayashi with the reasoned expectation that a fabric with a good surface texture as taught by Lovingood.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 2 and 4-16 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
